

Report of the Workshop held on 22.04.22

Post-Graduate Department of Commerce and Post Graduate Department of Economics of Dev Samaj College for Women had jointly organized one day Workshop on April 22, 2022, for the students of post-graduate classes on the topic “How to write a Research Paper”. Dr. Monika Mittal, Assistant Professor, GGDSD College, Sec-32, Chandigarh, and Dr. Firdous Ahmed Malik, Senior Research Associate at Jindal Centre for Global South, Sonipat were the resource persons for that occasion.

The resource person for Session I, Dr. Monika Mittal highlighted the principal stages associated with writing a research paper. She explained in detail the systematic and fact-finding approach toward research which establish new aspects to the existing problem and issues.

Her discussion included various features related to writing a research paper like the process of identification of relevant research topic, hypothesis testing, policy implications etc.

The resource person for Session II was Dr. Firdous Ahmed Malik. Dr Malik's presentation was especially based on the analysis of data using SPSS software and the interpretation of results obtained. He taught the students the practical application of SPSS software in the analysis of data and explained the concept of hypothesis testing and ANOVA table.

Both the sessions were informative and interactive. Students had a first-hand experience of research paper writing and analysis of statistical data both qualitative and quantitative. Faculty members from both departments also attended the workshop.
